

Folder Code_Experiments contains the folders of all the involved experiments introduced in file README.

Folder Software contains the software modules. Each such module is explained in file README.

File README is the report for the capstone project describing the provided work.

File report resumes the main points of this work. This file aims at the understanding of the work without the requirement of technical or any other scientific knowledge.

All files with code implementation are .ipynb (notebooks).